

Football competition

Football is a game in which two teams of 11 players compete, using any part of their bodies to hit the ball, except hands and arms, to try to get it into the goal of the opposing team, and allows the goalkeeper only to deal with the ball with his hands, and can do so only inside the penalty area surrounding the goal, and the winning team is the team that enters more goals

And now we're going to talk about our story about football. We're going to start with our first point. Create a Boot-camp for the national team and then Call up players to Play friendly matches if our national team play the Arab competitions and can perform well against all the competitors and collect the required points, this team will be a winner and Win the Arab Cup and it have a new cup. Otherwise, game over.

if our national team starts the Asian stage and gets enough points it will be able Compete in the Asia cup and join the world cup knockout stages.

if the national team plays the Asia competitions and passes the stages successfully it wins the Asian cup then have a new cup.

if the national team joins the world cup knockout stages and gets enough points it will be able to Compete in the world cup and maybe win the cup, Of course a new cup will be added to treasury team.

In the event that this stage is not passed, the team will step aside and become a loser and the competition will end.

In any stage, if the team didn't get enough points, they will wait for the training camp then start with all the steps from zero.
